LYRICS:

 01. THE PERMISSION ***

I've been a victim to a simple fraud I guess it's my fault, too but I blame it all on you you misbehaved I ate it all and now I'm striking back today I'm strong and tall I start with anger
All the bombs you dropped on me will return now constantly because of you my life is stained take my hate and keep the change look at me and realize what you considered dead survived curtain up - it's time to see all the wrong you did to me your mistakes your ignorance your selfishness (arrogance) you ruined my life I believe this is how forgiveness starts Nothing will hold me back!

 02. PINPOINT THE SHIFT  free that feeling of it's small box achieve healing against all odds it may be grief, may be anger, may be love and cause you danger when the sun sets over the harvested fields and you watch it kept between concrete and steel your wish: a tear in your eye we're the guys from outta town far away from our home there's a place that we can share take our hands we take you there amplifie your emotions be inspired, be encouraged we agree you are all right and when we leave our last words will be good night and good luck

 03. MASK OFF *****

step out of the line come and show your face let your beauty shine let go all your inhibitions let all the dogs run free grant yourself to be all the scenes we play we reenact to integrate lead us to this point now we are asked to leave the stage come invest some hope set your feet on better ways and you'll be alright believe it tonight you'll be alright start it tonight

gimme needles and no pills push me closer to the thrill yeah push (burn me, burn me) make me feel the rush of blood shiver with consuming lust come on (touch me, touch me) more pain the harder we fall and when its over we light it up again

feel the strength make a step it wont end this story it belongs to your hand

 04. CELLPHONE SLAVES *****

suddenly wiped out who's next?

something has to happen I really never meant to hit your head got no control, little slave every move can lead me far away every word is a risk we watch our life like a tv show too bad the phone's no remote control hedonism is ridiculous it will leave us bare and meaningless cool and distant

we speak but we dont communicate goodbye - there's nothing to offer me

I will strive for each trace of meaning culture, family, freedom, faith in God, and if it costs all my comfort, you can stop participating, drown in cozy boredom, I will never

 05. THE DIRTY DETAILS *****

how to seperate spirit from soul? you try to control what cant be hold (open up your eyes, open up your mind) you wait for me to fall and I wait for you to love standards dont do me justice standards dont do justice, they dont fit me anymore where the poor buy their bread are flickering lights and misery we've all got a long history of failure I'm still pushing on I'm not giving up there's more to come and I go through the eye of a needle

 06. ON A TRIP *****

we're not breaking up we pull the faith like a rabbit out of the hat eyes to the ground (eyes to the ground) I admit if I was wrong into the storm (into the storm) we hold our hands and keep them warm you feed my fire I'm your desire you and I overcome all the barriers cause we are together on that trip I may not understand but will stand by you we're taking strength by the taste of our last kiss this is companion this is persistence this is adventure this is love

there will be no freedom when there is no friendship
without loyalty

 07. NEED FOR A ROMEO  pay acceptance with kisses pay compassion with a low neckline stop protecting your frontline to have friends there's a point to indifference towards guns and chainsaws for the loss of a meaning makes us feel so hollow may blooms only once a year uniforms, uniforms her dress was perfect in shape she looked like all the others like all the others I stood one minute alone she asked to walk me home she had a single request to leave a memory on my skin guess what: her lipstick her father never called her princess save your skin

I will not abuse your need

 08. DEBRIEFING  we turned this van into our home and since we're back I wonder where the feelings gone we've been all over the place each new night spit us on another worn out stage where we belonged

on parkinglots the nights so cold we couldn't sleep and as we walked San Diego Beach we knew so far we've never been

How could we forget the love we had so passionate now we clearly see this was unique what could compete lay your body next to mine on the road - who would ever stop us? feels so good - you can never stop us!

You will not divide us we are shaped by our past

 09. Raya *****

(instrumental / no lyrics)

 10. RED LOVE *****

red sun over black cities new songs in a boring scene temptation's what I mean I'll be the first to pull your string

I miss it getting serious rebellion feels so marvellous red blood, red tears, red love every challenge I was made for let's go down on our knees have an affair - you and me that's the place I wanna come got know you like you are red burning, red balloon red speeding carousel I spread my arms and feel so free nothing ever hinders me what are you waiting for?

I take my chances
I'm out for what's alive
what's kicking what's breathing

 11. INPUT  the fuse is burning today I'm slamming doors all checks are failing reckless and uncontrolled what desperate gamble we're trading life for hope what am I gaining to jeopardize my soul

this is my final move

I pushed myself to far, Im loosing everything I´m giving up on me and then you´re giving in

What I called failing was breaking free
and all the time you bet on me you on me

 12. DOWN ON ME *****

Once again I´m stuck inside I wish I could be not so paralyzed with all my soul I wanna scream but all my soul is coming down on me

What a shame it´s been so far the door is closed and I don´t like the dark and all I have is who I am with all my soul I bring it to an end and now the music starts here come our broken hearts we´re reaching for the stars our dreams will last they´ll last

 13. DIRECTIONS  the constant whisperings create a new and strong desire pink shot lady they try to catch me with your attractions your pictures bore me tv entertainer you make me see things through your glasses i dont believe you promo campaign they calculate before they temptate you cant count on me

big mouth neighbour your competition just makes me laugh

this world wont turn me around with it's strange ideals i still have my freedom

 14. BLOODY ENCOUNTER *****

this here turned to evil it turned into a beast how nice to disown it and pretend it wasn't me this threat allows my life to have a simple purpose: to survive

there's comfort in this spawn and her exceeding hate and hope in the attempt to decapitate

I rise above my fear nothing else, really nothing matters anymore after all I can feel determination

I boot this twisted bastard out of my world and prevail at the decisive moment my aggression will not fail good and evil are easy to discern tonight
